

Fernando R. Gutierrez, MD native of Cuba, underwent Medical School training in Valladolid, Spain. After finishing a Radiology residence in Puerto Rico did a fellowship in Cardiac Imaging at The Mallinckrodt Institute of Radiology in St. Louis, Missouri (1978-1979). Since that time he has been on staff at the Cardiothoracic Imaging Section of that institution where he is now Professor of Radiology.

He has been active in Radiology resident teaching for over 40 years and has been invited speaker in over 100 major meetings in the US and 22 countries of North, Central, South America, Europe, Africa and Asia.

Authorship in 118 peer-reviewed major journals.

Edited 3 Radiology textbooks

Author or co-author of 12 book chapters.

Honors and Awards:

Fellow of Inter-American College of Physicians and Surgeons 1981

Fellow American College of Chest Physicians 1987

The Resident's Distinguished Teaching Award 1994. The Mallinckrodt Institute of Radiology

Fellow Council on Cardiovascular Radiology American Heart Association 1994

Distinguished Committee Service Award American College of Radiology 2004

2008 Lecturer of the Year. The Radiological Society of Finland

Gold Medal Award of the Argentinian Radiological Society. International Cooperation, 2014

Friend of the Mexican Federation of Radiology and Imaging. Monterrey, Mexico, October 2022

Gold Medal Award CADI 2023 Argentina.

Married to Ivonne L. Negron, MD. 3 children 9 grandchildren.

Hobbies include, cattle ranching, and Argentine tango dancing.